Portuguese NATO Headquarters successfully conducting military exercise

On 25th May, Allied Joint Force Command Lisbon (JFCLB) deployed from Oeiras to Stavanger/Norway to participate in the military exercise STEADFAST JOIST 11.

Until 3rd June 2011 the headquarters will make use of the training facilities provided by the Joint Warfare Centre. During the execution of the exercise, various scenarios in an imaginary and complex environment are being worked on. The objective is to train the JFCLB staff along with SPMARFOR⁽¹⁾ aboard the SPS CASTILHA, the NRDC⁽²⁾ in Turkey and French JFACC⁽³⁾ also in Norway, with all their respective capabilities on decision making and executing procedures in the conduction of operations.

JFCLB hereby underlines its ability to take over further military operations on behalf of NATO.

- 1) SPMARFOR – Spanish High Readiness Forces Maritime Spanish Headquarters
- 2) NRDC – NATO Rapid Deployable Corps - Turkey
- 3) French JFACC – French Joint Force Air Component Command
